Be brave. Trust yourself. Work hard and earn your economic independence. Question each and everything that doesn't feel right to you. Get out of your comfort zone and do whatever you wish, no matter how stupid that is. Travel a lot like a traveler(not tourist), may be alone also, enjoy nature, meet strangers. talk to them, listen to them. Take some of them with you, leave a bit of yourself in them. Forget, forgive and just move on. Trust me you will feel a different you within yourself. Happy women's day to you. Love yourself.
